Information Literacy Beyond Library 2.0

edited by Peter Godwin and Jo Parker

facet publishing
Contents

Contributors ................................................................. v
Acknowledgements .................................................................. xvi
Introduction ...................................................................... xvii
Peter Godwin

PART 1 RECENT DEVELOPMENTS IN INFORMATION LITERACY
AND LIBRARY 2.0 .......................................................... 1

1 Library 2.0: a retrospective .............................................. 3
Peter Godwin

2 Information literacy and Library 2.0: an update ............. 19
Peter Godwin

3 The story so far: progress in Web 2.0 and information literacy ............................................................................. 27
Peter Godwin

4 The changing web: sites to social ................................ 41
Phil Bradley and Karen Blakeman

5 Web 2.O: from information literacy to transliteracy .......... 53
Susie Andretta

6 Informed learning in online environments: supporting the higher education curriculum beyond Web’2.0 .................... 65
Hilary Hughes and Christine Bruce

PART 2 CASE STUDIES ..................................................... 81

7 Reinventing information literacy at UTS Library ............. 83
Sophie McDonald and Jemima McDonald

8 Using games as treatments and creative triggers: a promising strategy for information literacy ....................... 91
Susan Boyle

9 Changing the conversation: introducing information literacy to a generation of smartphone users .................... 103
Kristen Yarmey
10 Tweets, texts and trees..............................................................111
Andrew Walsh

11 Referencing in a 2.0 world.........................................................119
Stacey Taylor

12 Moving information literacy beyond Library 2.0: multimedia, multi-device, point-of-need screencasts via the ANimated Tutorial
Sharing Project.................................................................125
Carmen Kazakoff-Lane

13 Informed cyberlearning: a case study........................................139
Hilary Hughes

14 An online course on social media for student librarians:
teaching the information skills and literacies of social media..................................................................................151
Dean Giustini

15 Transliteracy and teaching what they know.................................163
Lane Wilkinson

16 ANCIL: a new curriculum for information literacy:
case study.............................................................................171
Jane Seeker and Emma Coonan

17 TeachMeet: librarians learning from each other.......................191
Niamh Tumelty, Isla Kuhn and Katie Birkwood

PART 3 WHAT IT MEANS FOR INFORMATION
PROFESSIONALS ......................................................................203

18 Helping the public online: Web 2.0 in UK public libraries........205
Helen Leech

19 Change has arrived at an iSchool library near you....................215
Judy O’Connell

20 Information literacy: a path to the future..................................229
Peter Godwin

21 Thoughts about the future........................................................241
Peter Godwin

22 Last word: information literacy beyond Library 2.0.................257
Peter Godwin

Index.........................................................................................261