The Cambridge Companion to Comparative Law

Edited By

Mauro Bussani

and

Ugo Mattei
Contents

List of contributors pagevii
List of abbreviations xi

Preface 1

Diapositives versus movies – the inner dynamics of the law and its comparative account
Mauro Bussani and Ugo Mattei 3

Part I Knowing comparative law 11

1 Comparative law and neighbouring disciplines
Mathias Reimann 13

2 Political ideology and comparative law
Duncan Kennedy 35

3 Economic analysis and comparative law
Nuno Garoupa and Tom Ginsburg 57

4 Comparative law and anthropology
Lawrence Rosen 73

5 Comparative law and language
Barbara Pozzo 88

Part II Comparative law fields 115

6 Comparative studies in private law
Franz Werro 117

7 Comparative administrative law
Francesca Bignami 145

8 Comparative constitutional law
Gunter Frankenberg 171
9 Comparative criminal justice
   Elisabetta Grande

10 Comparative civil justice
   Oscar G. Chase and Vincenzo Varano

11 Comparative law and international organizations
   George A. Bermann

Part III Comparative law in the flux of civilizations

12 The East Asian legal tradition
   Teemu Ruskola

13 The Jewish legal tradition
   J. David Bleich and Arthur J. Jacobson

14 The Islamic legal tradition
   Khaled Abou El Fadl

15 The sub-Saharan legal tradition
   Rodolfo Sacco

16 The Latin American and Caribbean legal traditions
   Diego Lopez-Medina

17 Mixed legal systems
   Vernon Valentine Palmer

18 Democracy and the Western legal tradition
   Mauro Bussani

Index